

Greetings,

Following this first page are several pages that you may print off and use to promote the reading of good devotional writings that keep salvation by the grace of God through faith in Christ as the main message and that properly distinguish Law and Gospel. Crumbs by Zorn (1914) is one of those works.

- The second page is a half-sheet, one-sided bulletin insert page for people ordering Crumbs on their own.
- The third sheet is a half-sheet, two-sided bulletin insert page for people ordering on their own.
- The fourth sheet is a half-sheet, one-side bulletin insert referring to a sign-up sheet for a consolidated order.
- The fifth sheet is a sign-up sheet for posting on a bulletin board, etc. This enables you to gather a list for a group order. When ordering a consolidated order you may place your order through . . .

Note that lulu.com is an independent company (an excellent one in my opinion!) and they take care of sales, printing, packaging and mailing. I am simply using this fine company to make these quality books available. Thus, I will have no knowledge of any orders and it would be of no benefit to contact me. Thanks.

The peace of the Lord be with you always,

These devotions were written by Rev. Carl Manthey Zorn, Lutheran missionary and pastor, and were published in 1914. These 365 daily devotions are divided into three sections:

- Part 1 follows the life of Jesus.
- Part 2 focuses on the parts of Luther's Small Catechism.
- Part 3 concerns the Christian life.

The featured artwork is from Gustave Doré and there are over 60 illustrations in this devotional book. While the original work did not include the text of the referenced hymns, this devotional includes them. This 9"x 6" paperback book has 584 pages and the industry's perfect binding. Through Dec. 31, 2007, the price is set at $18.71 plus shipping. Also, you may download this book free at the website below.

Here is part of the devotion for the First Sunday in Advent:

SUNDAY.

Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O daughter of Jerusalem! Behold thy King cometh unto thee: He is just, and having salvation. – Zechariah 9:9

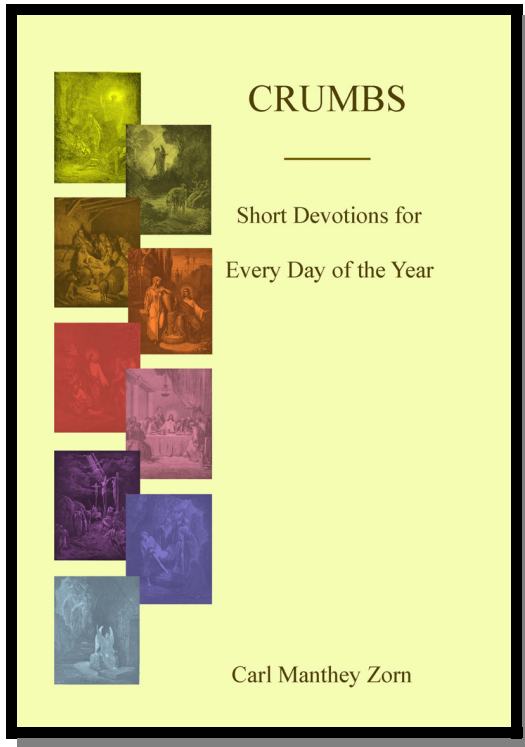

This is a word of prophecy written at a time when the Savior had not yet come. It is a word of prophecy given to the Daughter of Zion, the Daughter of Jerusalem. Who was the Daughter of Zion, the Daughter of Jerusalem? It was the congregation of believers in Israel, who desired to lift up their eyes to Mount Zion towering forth in Jerusalem, for upon that mount stood David's royal palace, and it was from David that the eternal King – the Savior – was to descend according to His human nature. And the desire of the believers was not to be put to shame. Through the Holy Spirit, the Prophet cried: "Rejoice greatly, O Daughter of Zion; shout, O Daughter of Jerusalem! Behold your King comes to you," your King, your eternal King! And He "is just, and having salvation": through His justice and righteousness, the righteousness which He procured for you, a poor sinful people, He will help you forevermore.

Christians, believing Christians, the Savior has come. By His bloody merit He has procured for you that righteousness with which you can stand before God. He has helped you. Say:

Jesus' blood and righteousness
My jewels are, my glorious dress,
Wherein before my God I stand
When I shall reach the heavenly land.

You are now the Daughter of Zion, the Daughter of Jerusalem. And now rejoice greatly, O Daughter of Zion; shout, O Daughter of Jerusalem! Behold, your King comes to you: He is just, and having salvation. Christians, you believe in Him, you are righteous before God, you are helped.

(The prayer and hymns stanzas follow at this point in the devotional.)
